Henk Vanhoutte

European Safety Federation

Henk is Secretary General of the European Safety Federation (organization of European PPE suppliers). He has a degree in Textile Engineering and additional education in Quality Management and General Management (MBA).

Henk is involved in the development of protective clothing and the conformity assessment (certification) of PPE for more than 20 years.

Since 2014 he is as the Secretary General the main contact person of the European Safety Federation with all stakeholders (EU Commission, EU Parliament, Notified Bodies, Market Surveillance authorities, CEN-CENELEC, user groups, ...) concerning legislation and all aspects of its implementation.

He is also involved in standardization as CEN rapporteur for the PPE sector and as chair of CEN-CENELEC BTWG 8. In both functions he is working on the strategy for and the future of PPE standardization in Europe.
